The Massachusetts domestic relations bar has been fortunate to have many women practitioners whose professional diligence and intellectual passion have made them major contributors to the current state of the law and field of practice.

Join us for an inspiring roundtable discussion as we celebrate and hear from those who have paved the way for other women in this area of law.

Listen to distinguished and dedicated judges and practitioners as they share with us what they have experienced while forging a path for present and future women practitioners. Hear their advice and guidance on breaking the glass ceiling and rising to the top.
